

A Spirit of Sustainability

Why We Care About Carbon Neutrality

Help celebrate Cornell Sustainability Month in April! Hear from the people behind Cornell's Climate Action Plan (CAP), their inspirations and motivations, and the university's efforts to achieve carbon neutrality in the years ahead.

Sage Chapel, Cornell University Every Thursday in April

12:00pm Light lunch and light-hearted music

12:15pm Program Moderator Dan Roth & Featured Speaker(s)

Special remarks for our April 2 series kickoff by Executive Vice President Steve Golding

Energy Conservation

April 2

"The Urge to Conserve: Why Saving Energy is Everybody's Business"

– Lanny Joyce

Alternative Transportation

April 9

"Taking the Car out of Carbon; Putting the Bus into Business"

– Spring Buck and David Lieb

Green Development

April 16

"Cornell Roots Grow Green"

– Randy Lacey

Renewable Energy

April 23

"Cooling the Hottest Ivy; Heating the Coolest Ivy"

– Jim Adams

Education and Research

April 30

"Who's Putting the 'Ability' in Sustainability?"

– Tim Fahey and Kyu Whang

Free and open to the community

SUSTAINABILITY
AT CORNELL

www.cornell.edu/sustainability